Dear Irene!

I just have to write you this note. A few weeks ago, during a short journey to Germany, friends took me to visit infamous Buchenwald - my first ever such experience. I can't begin to tell you how affected I was, especially as your story was front and centre for me. There is little one can say before such catastrophic events... except to be vigilant against repetition. So what can I say but that I was shaken. Yvonne Acemi -

P.S. I saw Cecalola Waus. Great job!
