

WINNERS AT MANHEIM

National Film Board of Canada

Dark Lullabies, a feature documentary by Irene Angelico and Abbey Jack Neidik, and Giles Walker's fiction-feature -90 Days both earned awards at the 35th International Filmweek Mannheim 85, in Mannheim, West Germany, October 7-12. Dark Lullabies, Angelico's personal exploration of the Holocaust and its impact on children of survivors and their German contemporaries, won three awards: Special Award for the social/politically engaged film (accompanied by 3,000 marks cash prize); First Prize given by the Evangelischen Jury: and second prize given by the Continuing Education Jury.